Full Membership

Full membership provides full and equal voting rights on the governance and strategic direction of the Society. Full members may also stand for election to the Society's Executive Committee. Full membership includes access to each and every member forums as well as exclusive additional full member-only events.

Full membership is available to allied health organisations which meet the following criteria:

- Have a relevant tertiary (or equivalent) qualification as defined in s12 (2) (a-e) of the HPCA Act 2003
- Have a recognised system for monitoring ongoing competence
- Abide by professional standards of practice
- Abide by a professional code of ethics
- Have direct contact with service users in fulfilling their role
- Abide by the Allied Health Aotearoa New Zealand Constitution
- Have a robust public complaints process

The full membership levies for 2019 are as follows:

Commercial Associate Membership

Commercial Associate Membership is available to commercial organisations who feature in the allied health working environment and whose products or services support the delivery of allied health services and therefore improved outcomes for patients.

The corporate values and structure of Commercial Associate Members should align well with the values and objectives of Allied Health Aotearoa New Zealand (e.g. would exclude tobacco and alcohol suppliers). Consideration and approval of membership applications will be determined by the Executive Committee.

The Commercial Associate membership levy for 2019 will be determined in conjunction with the Executive Committee.

Strategic Partner

Strategic Partner status is available to recognised organisations with whom Allied Health Aotearoa New Zealand acknowledges a close working relationship. Strategic Partners include the Ministry of Health, ACC, Nga Pou Mana and the District Health Boards formal group for Directors of Allied Health.

There is no charge for organisations approved by the Executive Committee as Strategic Partners.
